The Passing of the Tambourine

The jingling little instrument, by means of which The Salvation Army has collected money to aid the poor, the weak and the unfortunate, has been discarded by order of the Commander. The Salvation Army is enlarging its work in the slums, the Poverty streets and alleys of American cities.

Its officers no longer will have time for soliciting funds in the streets. So the tambo must go.

The Army, back from the war, is prepared to fight misery in America. It conducts Rescue Homes--Day Nurseries--Lodging Houses for Down and Outers--Homes for the Helpless Aged Fresh Air Farms--Free Clinics.

It must continue on a larger scale than ever.

LOCAL ENTHUSIASM STRONG FOR BEALL

The People of Holmes County Unreservedly Commend Geo. S. Beall, Jr., to the Voters of Mississippi for State Revenue Agent.

A large number of friends of George S. Beall, Jr., who is a candidate for State Revenue Agent, met at Lexington Wednesday for the purpose of completing the organization of Mr. Beall's home county forces. It was the sense of the meeting that Mr. Beall was entitled to an introduction to the people of the state by his home people. The following memorial was adopted: "To the People of the State of Mississippi:

"Feeling that the people of our state are searching for those men who can render them the best service as public officials and feeling that it is our duty to ourselves and to the State of Mississippi to give them our estimate of George S. Beall, Jr., who is a candidate for State Revenue Agent, we can say that—as a man, he has lived among us an upright Christian gentleman; as a citizen, he has always stood for progress in governmental affairs and has always stood ready, both with his time and his money, to assist in any matter of public interest and for the public good; as an officer, his administration of the sheriff's office has been above criticism. He has administered the affairs of the people with the same painstaking care and efficiency with which he attended his own business before he became a public servant.

"We unreservedly commend him to the people of the state as a man well fitted to fill the office to which he aspires. We know that if he is elected he will give to that office the same attention and administrative ability which has made him a successful business man in private life and a faithful and efficient public officer."—The Lexington Advertiser. —adv.

THEY ALL SAY SO—READ IT.

This will show you what they think about the stock at The Columbus Auto Company:

In a recent interview with J. P. Morgan, he said that a long time ago Queen Victoria told him that she had heard Henry Waterson say that Mrs. A. T. Stewart heard that there was no doubt that Billy Burke said Caruso thought Longfellow had told Henry Ward Beecher that Charlie Chaplin had declared to him that it was generally believed that W. J. Bryan while in Washington heard Senator Lodge say his friend Theodore Roosevelt had said that Marshal Foch informed him that it was well known all over the country that General Pershing and Champ Clark had actually heard Sam Jones and Talmadge both say that in their opinion The Columbus Auto Company sells better Ford cars, J. H. C. implements, and Ford parts at better prices, and gives better service than any one else up and down and around about.

PICTURE SHOW PARTY.

One of the most delightful events of the season was a picture show party given by Miss Edith Gritzman last Friday evening. After returning from the show dancing and games were enjoyed. Later on in the evening a delicious ice course was served. Those enjoying the evening were: Misses Catherine Beard, Neida Lockworthy, Frances Ottley, Nell Kenendy, Juanita Gardner, Maurine Kaufman, Lois Brewster, Margaret Gunter, Aline and Vergie McKeough, Grace Morris, Virginia Wilkinson, Helen Ellis, Mary Kirk Lawrence, Margaret Flood; Messrs. Percy Maer, Jack Walker, Jacob Simon, William and John Beard, Joe Cowan, Willie Evans, Ernest and Edward Couchman, Henry Foote, Cox, C. H. Eckford, George Brown, Walton Lipscomb, Arthur Stansel. Chaperoned by Miss Georgie Quarles.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Little Miss Frances Lacy entertained twenty-five of her little friends at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Joe Lacy, last Tuesday afternoon at a lawn party. The occasion was the third birthday of the little host and it was a pretty and beautiful affair. After numerous games were played ice cream and cake and candies were served. The hostess was the recipient of many beautiful little gifts.

Mr. W. H. Dyson of Hickory Flat, Miss., and a candidate for Railroad Commissioner for the Northern District of Mississippi, was among the visitors in Columbus the past week. Mr. Dyson has some warm personal friends in this city and he made many more friends during his visit here.

feel that the fruits of our efforts will be a material benefit to our county. Yet we cannot believe it will be a lasting benefit until the whites who seem to be at the bottom of much of the making and selling of whiskey are brought to justice.

We earnestly endeavored to pull the cover from such parties, but found them well fortified behind cunning, the fear and the ignorance of the poor negro whom we find loyal to the extent that they were willing to suffer the full penalty of the law rather than divulge the names of the whites with whom they were dealing, and for whom they sold whiskey.

We are convinced from evidence that the City of Columbus, this beautiful queen city, is the principal store room for a large part of the whiskey distilled along the Tombigbee river and in the northern and eastern part of the county. "Cat Fish Alley" seems to be the open market place for this whiskey, and it is a very evident fact that the police of the City of Columbus are failing woefully to do their full duty in a determined effort to rid the city of this curse. Our investigation leads us to conclude it is being sold in this alley from buggies and wagons in the open street, and in broad day-light; that is it is being sold in certain shops and rooms along this alley. We further believe that certain white men owning and occupying rooms on this alley are interested in connection with this traffic. We have, however, been unable to get sufficient evidence on which to indict.

To the district attorney and sheriff of our county we desire to express our deep and true appreciation of their valued services. The district attorney has guided us safely along the paths of duty while our own and efficient sheriff has proven a past grand master in serving subpoenas and supplying us speedily with desired witnesses.

All of which we respectfully submit,
W. G. EVANS, Foreman.

CENTENARY DRIVE BEGINS TODAY.

church as a whole. Columbus Methodists are as intelligent and active as will be found in most places—and they will be in line with the great movement. One of the leaders announced an offering of $1,500.00 during the week. That sets the pace. Others will follow. The quota for First church, $18,000.00, will be subscribed and paid. This old church will not be left in the lurch while others are doing things. Men, women and children will be at work during the week to the end that every interested party be given a chance to "do his bit." It is a great free-will offering, expressing gratitude, loyalty, love for one's fellowman: the Christian desire to help.

The following teams have been appointed by the First church to conduct the drive to-day. All members of these teams will meet this morning at 9 o'clock for final instructions at the church:

Active Age
Proves
Real Quality

Like warriors grown gray in harness, and white-haired employees still on the job, a scuffed and scarred set of Silvertown Cords on an ancient car somehow best tells the story of the matchless service of these patrician tires.

The graceful, well-groomed elegance, with which they when new adorn smart cars, may be shabby; their tough tread worn smooth; but their distinction remains.

Once a Silvertown always a Silvertown. You know them, old or new, for aristocrats.

In their age, you read the history of their wonderful endurance; their useful career of miles and miles of road roughing.

You always get the long mileage of a ripe old age to round out the youthful beauty of the tires with the Twin Red Diamonds on the sidewall.
